

President's Message

by Betty McMillen

In the spirit of Thanksgiving it is rewarding to see all that we have accomplished this year . . . THANKS to our hard working volunteers, generous members and Supervisor, Dianne Jacob, for awarding us the County Grant money. Aaaaamen.

ORCHIDS AND ONIONS AWARDS

On November 19 the Lakeside Historical Society will be accepting the ORCHID AWARD for Historic Preservation in San Diego County. This is a big honor.

I submitted our name along with a few photos and articles about what we have done over the last ten years. We were chosen out of a field of 30 competitors. The judges included architects and building industry persons.

The Orchids and Onions Awards Ceremony will be held at Sea World. Larry Himmel will be the Master of Ceremonies. There is usually quite a bit of TV and newspaper publicity . . . this is a very big deal!

We are proud that we are being recognized for our hard work, restoration efforts and historic preservation.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

by Dolores Meyer

NOVEMBER 23, 1998
9906 MAINE AVENUE
LAKESIDE

Bob Sidner with the Menger International Museum of Folk Art will be our Guest Speaker, talking and showing slides on Folk Art and the History of their Museum over the past 20 years. Bring a friend and enjoy learning about other museums.

Thanksgiving dinner is truly a magical meal . . . it keeps reappearing for days!

OFF TO SALT LAKE

Three of our LHS members are off to Salt Lake for a week of research into their family trees. Will they uncover any skeletons? Answer along with their experiences in the next newsletter.

The Ramona Pageant

We are planning now for April—a fun day—bus trip to Hemet—and not too early to get your name on the list. Arrangements will be made firm January 1999. This is always a “sell-out” happening—so get your name on the list.

For 76 years, the famed Ramona Pageant has been presented in the beautiful Ramona bowl by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto. Based on the classic novel Ramona by Helen Hunt Jackson, the show uses an entire mountainside as its stage. A cast of more than 425 actors, dancers, singers and horsemen tell the poignant love story of Ramona and her Indian hero, Allesandro. Special handicapped seating is available.

Approximate cost $35.00. Lunch on your own.

Get your name on the list!

Will we need a bus—or a minibus??

or the History Center at 561-1886

Dear LHS and Friends,

Thank you so much for the beautiful basket of flowers and the framed plaque of appreciation. They mean so much to me because they are from YOU.

Thank you for all you did to make our 21st Home Town Reunion and Mortgage Burning a day to remember and an historic event in the life of our Lakeside Historical Society.

Love, Edna Kouns

Treasurer's Report

by Elaine Brack

Since I have been writing this little article for the Society so much has been accomplished, that I can hardly believe it.

Things are being completed and so there is not very much to share with you.

Thank you all for the continued support of the Society in so many ways. I am still receiving money for the various activities that are on going . . . such as the Heater/Air project, the continued restoration project and many other little projects that someone has mentioned need to be accomplished. So if you have any project that you want to support or need to know of the different needs at the Society, please give a call to anyone and we will pass on the information.

HOPE YOU ALL HAVE A VERY GREAT HOLIDAY SEASON . . .

Leaders Honored

Jim and Dianne El-Hajj, owners of Payton's Hardware in Lakeside, have been selected to receive the 1998 Sam Walton Business Leader Award, sponsored by the El Cajon Wal-Mart store.

The El-Hajjes were awarded the award because of their customer service, employee relations, and commitment to the Lakeside community. El-Hajj was chosen as the award recipient by the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce which received a $500 grant in the El-Hajj's name.

HOLIDAY RUM CAKE

Before you start, check rum to make sure it's of good quality. Select a large bowl, measuring cup and spoon. Then check rum again. With an electric mixer beat 2 cups butter in a large fluffy bowl. Add 1 teaspoon sugar. Meanwhile, check rum again. Add 3 rarge yeggs, 2 cups fried druit and beat until bery high. If druit sticks in beaters, pry tout with screwdriver. Taste rum again. Add fre scups baking powder, 1 pint of rum, a seaspoon of toda and a cup of pepper. Sift 1 pint of wemon juice and fold in chopped buttermild and strained nuts. Add a bable- spoon of scrown buger or whatever color you have. Check rum again. Turn pan to 350°; grease oven and pour the whole mess in. Sample rum while waiting. If it doesn't turn out so well, change brand of rummm.

Elephant Stew

1 elephant (medium size) 2 cups black pepper
2 ½ cups salt cover with lots of brown gravy

Cut elephant into 1-inch cubes. Allow 60 to 72 days for this procedure. (Remove trunk; you will need something to store the pieces in.) Season and cover with gravy and water to cover. Cook over wood fire for about 4 weeks, maintaining heat at approximately 465°, or cook over kerosene stove about 4 weeks, or until tender and well done; stir constantly. If more than 3,800 guests are expected, add 2 rabbits, but only if necessary, because most people don't like hare in their stew.
